

SOWING GODS WORD ON MAURITIUS AND RÉUNION

Mission trip to Mauritius and Réunion from 5 to 28 November 2019

“A sower went out to sow. A part fell in good ground and it produced fruit a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times”.

Matthew 13: 3-8

“Do you want to pray for me?” brother Loll asked. My 15-month-old granddaughter has to undergo surgery. He looked at us seriously. Loll is an employee of the hotel where we stayed and knew us from last year. A few days after we laid hands on him in the Name of Jesus he received a message from the hospital that the operation was successful and that Elise was allowed to go home the next day. Gloire à Dieu!

Shobha also came for prayer and received a bag of baby clothes for her grandson.

It was again a privilege to preach that salvation is in no one else than Jesus Christ (Acts 4:12). And that every knee will bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Philippians 2:10).

In the "International Christian Church" of Pastor Popo in Port Louis there was great joy over two people who were baptized that Sunday. Many came forward then to receive from the Lord and we could lay hands on each of them in Jesus' Name. In the smaller meeting on Thursday morning we could give everyone a prophetic blessing to build up their personal faith. Pastor Popo has also founded a new daughter church in the far north of the island in Poudre d'Or. Many in this still small congregation were taught and baptized in the Holy Spirit so that they spoke in new tongues and glorified God.

On the island of Réunion, the senior pastor Chane-To of the Church of La bonne nouvelle de l'Évangile in Le Tampon had transferred the leadership to his son-in-law Jean Louis, causing a new wind to blow. Two daughter churches have since been founded in St. André and St. Marie. In these congregations we saw people be converted and we could lay hands on many for healing and deliverance and people received a prophetic blessing.

We were also allowed to harvest what we had not sown in the two churches from Assemblée de Dieu in Belle Rose and Flic & Flac on Mauritius, where people were converted. In the open-air service in Tombeau Bay, people also gave their lives to Jesus, including drunkards. They received forgiveness of their sins and were allowed to start a new life in Jesus' Name.

For that the Lord Jesus has left heaven and became sin and curse for all mankind on the cross of Calvary. There is forgiveness and salvation through His shed blood. On the third day He rose from the dead and proved to be God's Son. He lives to never die again. Hallelujah! All power is given to Him in heaven and on earth.

Last but not least. The powerful service in the "Light of Christ Church", where many were touched for healing and deliverance. Great joy!

- We give all glory and honor to the Lord Jesus Christ
- Thank you very much for prayer and financial support
- We were able to give a gift to two pastors and our translator.
- We could also hand out baby clothes again.
